To the Class of 1952:

Congratulations to the smiling group of boys and girls in this graduating class. We hope that whatever your choice may be, you will have the best of luck.

If we have been only a little help in your school life, we feel that our work has been fruitful. Be sure to hold on always to the fine things for which our forefathers lived and, when necessary, died. We may, indeed, enjoy a heritage which was left for us.

—MARVIN O. WERLEY.

JOAN HOMMES

This page is dedicated to Joan Hommes, whose blithe spirit, warm smile, and outstanding personality are a part of the Class of 1952. Unfortunately, Joan was stricken with infantile paralysis in our junior year and had to leave us.

As we leave our Alma Mater, we shall remember Joan as a beloved classmate.

SENIOR CLASS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Front Row: Lois Snyder, Jacqueline Schach, Loretta Becker.
Second Row: Miss Garman, Helen Gay Sheley, Alice Ditzler, Phyllis Spittler, Mr. Smith.
Third Row: Willard Zerbe, Charles Lengle, Jack Goodman, Richard Longsdorff, Arnet Krammes.

ALMA MATER

(TUNE: "An Old American Song")

Nestled in among the mountains,
In a vale we love,
Lies a pleasant little village
Which is named Pine Grove.

CHORUS:

Here we all have gained our knowledge,
In the school we love,
Now we hail our Alma Mater:
Hail! All hail Pine Grove.

She has taught us life's great lessons,
And has taught them well;
We're prepared to fight life's battles,
Then in peace to dwell.

If our lives have led us onward
To famed heights above,
Then can we, with pride, point backward
To our dear Pine Grove.

CLASS SONG

(To the Tune:

"May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You")

When the morning light is breaking
O'er the eastern mountain's rim,
And the world to work is waking,
Let us sing our happy hymn.

With the joys of life before us
And life's battles stern and grim,
With a kindly heaven o'er us
We will sing our happy hymn.

So here's to the sky above us,
And here's to the wheat fields of gold,
Here's to the friends that love us,
And our love shall ne'er grow cold.

For our friends and fields and mountains,
Under heaven's kindly blue,
To our class and to our high school.
Dear old Pine Grove, here's to you: (repeat)

—JOHN GOODMAN.

MOTTO: "Every day is a fresh beginning;
Every morn is the world made new."

CLASS COLORS: Blue and White

CLASS FLOWER: American Beauty Rose

CLASS POEM

"GAY NINETIES"

Horseless carriages and old gas lights,
And bicycles built for two,
Are memories to the ladies and gents
Of the Class of "52."

A salute to Diamond Jim we give,
To derbies and bustles, too,
As the memories of this age still live
With the Class of "52."

The days they played the good old jazz,
Seem rather quaint to you,
So, though we like the Gay Nineties,
We're a modern "52."

—ARLENE KRAMER and
HELEN GAY SHELEY.

CLASS HISTORY

As we march down the aisle to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," we have many fond memories of the events we have enjoyed together.

In our freshman year, students from adjoining districts joined us, making an enrollment of fifty-six.

Class organization came with our sophomore year as we elected our class advisors and class officers. Our first activity was a soup and bake sale. Later in the year we held a hoedown called "The Hop of Hearts," at which we crowned the King and Queen of Hearts. The highlight of our sophomore year was the "Sophomore Hop," which was held in the early spring.

In our junior year we awaited Christmas with much anticipation because at this time our treasured class rings would arrive. We held a hoedown at which we raffled off turkeys. Rivalry grew between our class and the junior class of Tremont as we fought enthusiastically to win the newspaper contest. The wholehearted cooperation and diligent work of everyone enabled us to emerge victorious. With regret we said good-bye to our class advisor, Mr. Himmelberger, who left us to become a member of the faculty of West Reading High School. The crowning of the king and queen, Paul "Gooey" Lehman and Ethel Miller, was held in the oriental atmosphere of our Junior Prom, called "Tea for Two." This dance was the last event of a successful junior year.

After three eventful years we finally reached our exalted position — we were seniors!

This year we elected a new class advisor, Mr. Richard Smith. The first event of the year was our class play, "Act Your Age," a comedy under the capable direction of Miss Garman.

During our senior year we took an educational trip to Pottsville, where we saw many places of interest. On February 16, we held our last important dance. "Valentine's Day" leaves us with many memories.

Our final trip, one for which we labored since entering high school, found us enroute to Washington. Upon our return, we took leave of our classmates and teachers.

Regretfully we depart from Pine Grove High School, where the good times we enjoyed together will soon be only a memory. Bravely we set out to face whatever the future holds for us, certain that the knowledge we gained in Pine Grove High School will aid us in all future endeavors.

—ANNA MAE WENRICH and MAE KRAUSE.

We do hereby sign, seal, and publish this as our Last Will and Testament at Pine Grove High School on the second day of June, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred Fifty-two.

CLASS PROPHECY

The era of gas lights, horseless carriages, Diamond Jim, and handle-bar mustaches has passed away. Ten eventful years have gone by since our memorable day of graduation.

Ten years may not seem like such a long time, but to the Class of "52," who have gathered in the high school auditorium for a class reunion, it brings back many happy memories that have been forgotten during the years.

After the delicious turkey dinner we danced to the music of our own Andy Schucker and his orchestra, featuring Eva Daubert as vocalist. During intermission, the noted dramatist, Helen Gay Sheley, gave a few readings. Here and there young housewives such as Ina Readinger Herring, Anna Mae Wenrich Dieter, Beatrice Ditzler Fry, and Betty Adams, the former Betty Stahl, who owns a beauty salon, were overheard talking about their children.

Many of the young men, namely, Arnet Krammes, Robert Hummel, Eugene Hummel, and William Aungst, who are serving their country, couldn't be present. Richard Longsdorff, looking quite handsome in his Navy uniform, managed to get a leave. Also serving their country as nurses, holding the rank of lieutenant, were Betty Miller, Shirley Stupp, and Trena Mars. Other classmates serving in community hospitals were Myrle and Ruth Kramer, Naomi Loy, Vivian Wenrich, and Shirley Miller, as a nurse's aide. They were conversing with Dr. J. Peter Touchard about some new drugs.

Dennis Aungst, Willard Zerbe, Charles Lenge, Guy Fessler, Ernest Rehner, and Dale McIntyre were discussing their work as carpenters, welders, and bricklayers. With this group were well-to-do farmers, Landis Brown, Charles Keefer, Donald Lehr, and Eugene Stahl, Daniel Merrell, Albert Mitsky, who were completing courses in engineering.

Arriving by plane from New York were Anna Lou Fisher, the famous concert singer; John Goodman, an organist in one of New York's large churches; John Fidler, the noted interior decorator; Phyllis Spittler, a model, and June Frantz, a well-known hair stylist. They were accompanied by Janet Adams, an airline hostess. Also arriving by plane were Dolores Mendell, the distinguished dress designer, with her private secretary, Lois Snyder, George Miller, a sports commentator, and Shirley Haas, who worked in Macy's department store. Other secretaries and accountants present at the reunion were Betty Readinger, Lorraine Hummel, Sara Moyer, and Mae Krause. Talking to these secretaries and accountants was Alice Ditzler, the English instructor at our own Pine Grove High School. We learned the following members of our class were working in the large department stores of New York: Ellen Doran, Mary Ellen Krammes, Arlene Kramer, Jean Krause, Arlene Miller, and Jacqueline Schach.

The reunion ended quite late with a prayer and benediction by the Rev. Stanley W. Ferrebee.

—SHIRLEY STUPP and ANNA LOU FISHER.

The F. F. A. is an intra-curricular activity having its origin and root in a definite part of the school curriculum — vocational agriculture. Among other things, members learn through active participation how to conduct and take part in a public meeting; to speak in public; to buy and sell cooperatively; to solve their own problems; to finance themselves; and to assume civic responsibility. The foundation on which the Future Farmers of America organization is built includes leadership and character development, sportsmanship, cooperation, thrift, service, scholarship, improved agriculture, organized recreation, citizenship and patriotism.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"ACT YOUR AGE"

Everyone roared as the annual Senior Class Play, this year entitled "Act Your Age," progressed merrily through three sparkling acts. Even the cast had to take time out at rehearsals when Bill Aungst as Commander Stone and Helen Gay Sheley as his daughter took nose-dives into the window box (separately, of course!).

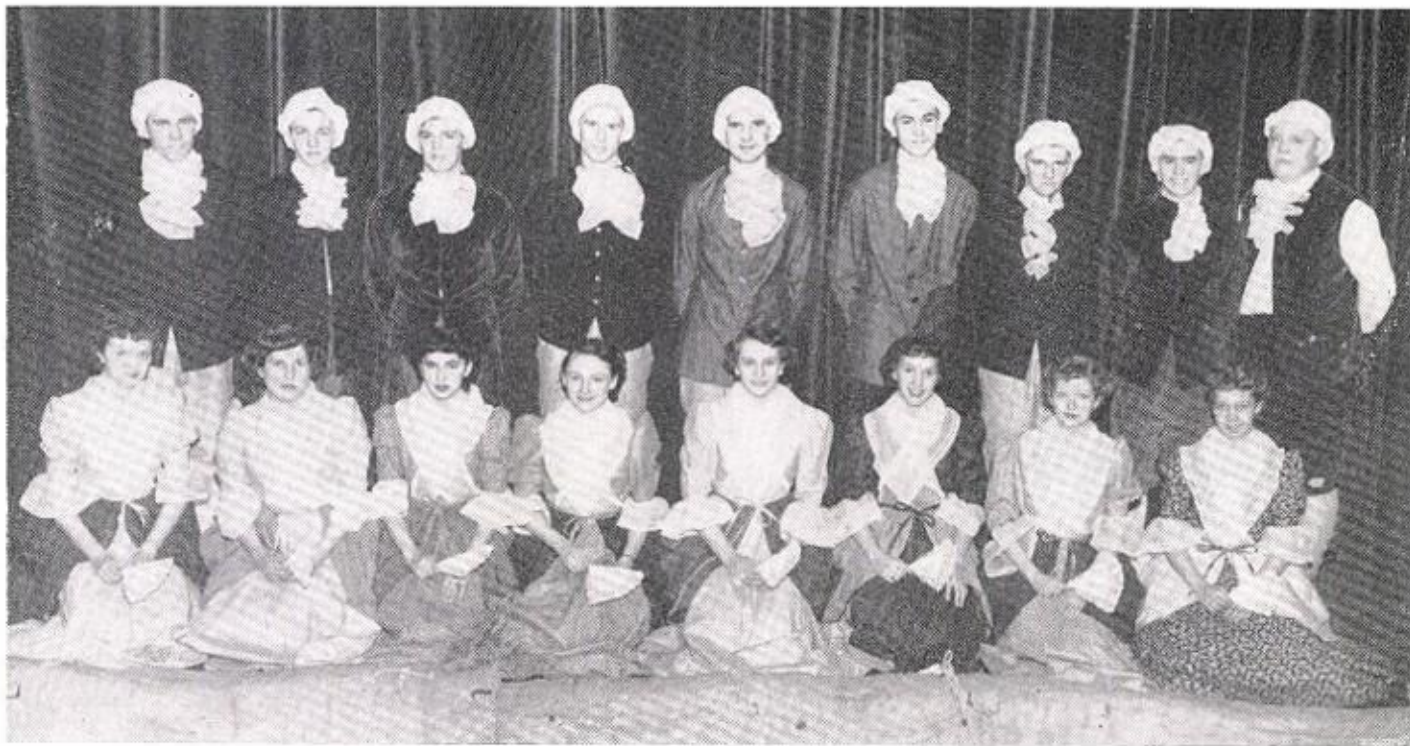

The plot concerned two fourteen-year-olds, Angy and Jerry, played by Loretta Becker and Dolores Mendell, who started writing to a pair of sailors (in real life, Jack Goodman and Peter Touchard). When the sailors arrived to visit the girls — look out — complications are here! The play had everything — grass skirts, lady wrestlers, and even a hokum "wake" scene. In short, it was one long cascade of laughs. The cast enjoyed doing it (we know!), the audience enjoyed seeing it (we think!); Miss Garman enjoyed directing it (we hope!).

SENIOR BALL

JUNIOR PROM

MINUET

The birthday of George Washington was commemorated at Pine Grove High School with an appropriate assembly program, reviving the memories of the historical-minded by a return to the Colonial days, when George and Martha Washington entertained in their home on the Potomac.

The pageant entitled "A Day at the Home of George Washington" was beautifully portrayed by a group of students wearing the costumes of the eighteenth century. The scenes included guests of the state, prominent in official office; servants of the household, and children loved by the kindly Washingtons.

The pageant opened with scenes of the servants and their master preparing the home for the guests. Dancing by the children was one of the features of the next scene. The climax to the activities of a busy day was the ball held in honor of the master of the house. In a beautiful setting, brilliantly lighted and made very colorful by the spotlights, members of the senior class joined in a perfect exhibition of the Minuet. All of the participants were members of the Class of 1952 with the exception of the children taking part.

The production was under the direction of Mrs. Bruce L. Christ, teacher of social studies. The dancing scenes were directed by Mrs. Lee Raybuck, local teacher of artistic dancing. The stage arrangement and decorations were done by Jack Goodman, member of the class. The program was enjoyed by the assembly with an excellent applause of their approval. It will possibly become an annual program to mark this important birth date of the First President of our nation.

For the fifth straight year, Pine Grove High School took the championship of the South Schuylkill League by defeating Schuylkill Haven, 64-61. The Grovers also represented their league in the District 11 play-offs and defeated a strong Hellertown team, 66-46. However, Nesquehoning's underrated quintet upset the high-flying Grovers, 59-56, in the District 11 final.

Pine Grove High School's individual scoring record for one season was broken for the second year in succession. The record set last season by Paul Lehman was 424 points. This season, two members of Pine Grove's team broke the record. They are Donald Reinhard, who scored 431 points, and the new record holder, Jackson Pepe, who scored 590 points.
